

AN UNUSUAL SECURITY PERFIN

by Roy Everett

Perfin illustrated below appeared on the fly-leaf of a book borrowed through the Library Service, the book being out of print and therefore requested from the British Library.

The book was accepted into the Metropolitan Joint Fiction Reserve, Islington on 31.3.65.

Since the first sighting I have now seen this perfin in another book and it appears to be a perfin used by a branch of the British Library Fiction Reserve sections on books within specific book repositories.
